Learn, Network, and Assess Your Skills During UNO's Global Summer Institute, you will:

- › Tour businesses of all shapes and sizes, connecting the course curriculum in entrepreneurship and innovation to real-life practices.
- › Identify your personal brand and learn more about yourself through the Gallup CliftonStrengths assessment.
- › Consult with an Omaha nonprofit organization, providing recommendations on how they can improve their daily operations.

After the program, you will receive a certificate of completion. You can expect to translate what you have learned throughout the program into your own leadership style and visualize your business plan—all with the support of your new worldwide network of professionals, subject-matter experts, and students.

Experience Culture and Explore

Omaha has plenty of sights to see outside the boardroom and classroom. While here, you will visit the local farmer's market, take in a baseball game, check out our world-renowned zoo, and more! You will stay in Aksarben Village near UNO's campus, where you can explore the restaurants, shops, and entertainment within walking distance.

EXPLORE OMAHA: A Major Business Hub in the Midwest

Omaha is a safe, mid-size city with big business opportunities. Located in the heart of the Silicon Prairie, Paypal, Microsoft, Google, Facebook, and LinkedIn all have offices here, alongside thousands of other successful businesses and startups. Several Fortune 500 companies are headquartered in Omaha, including Berkshire Hathaway and Union Pacific.

Join the Mavericks

The University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) is a metropolitan university bringing premier education, opportunities, and community to students. We are the Mavericks— independent thinkers, explorers, and risk-takers. More than 1,000 international participants attend UNO annually.
